

Primary Care Study Day Official Programme

Kingston Maurward College, Wednesday September 27th 2017

Hosted by Dorset County Hospital NHS Foundation Trust, Department of Diabetes and Endocrinology and Dorset Healthcare University Foundation Trust

Time	Subject	Speakers
8:45 – 9:30	Registration & Refreshments
9:30 – 10:30	Diabetes in West Dorset: Clinical Model and Implementation Plan	Hermoine Price , Consultant Physician, RBCH & Southern Health. Dorset CCG Diabetes Lead. Paul Lewis , Programme Manager, Integration & Collaboration, DCH
10:30 – 11:00	Break
11:00 – 11:30	Improving diabetes care in Practice – The way forward?	Alison Pisani , Advanced Nurse Practitioner, Shelley Manor and Holdenhurst Medical Centre
11:30 – 12:00	Hypertension; tricks of the trade	Raymond MacAllister , Consultant Physician, DCH
12:00 – 12:45	Sugar and Spice	Partha Kar , Consultant Physician, Queen Alexandra Hospital, Portsmouth. Associate National Clinical Director for Diabetes
12:45 – 13:30	Lunch
13:45 – 14:25	Debate; for and against: Vitamin D deficiency. Should it be identified and treated in all patients with diabetes?	Andy Macklin , Diabetes Consultant, DCH Adeel Ghaffar , Diabetes Consultant, DCH
14:25 – 15:15	TBC	TBC
15:15 – 15:45	Break
15:45 – 16:15	The story of insulin; past present and future	Adeel Ghaffar , Diabetes Consultant, DCH

This Primary Care Study Day is kindly being sponsored by members of the pharmaceutical industry including Agamatrix, Ascensia, Boehringer-Ingelheim, Eli Lilly & Company, GlucoRx, Johnson & Johnson, Merck Sharp & Dolme, Novo Nordisk, Owen Mumford, Roche Diabetes Care, Sanofi and Takeda UK Ltd

- This event is sponsored by the above pharmaceutical companies:
- The pharmaceutical companies listed above have had no involvement in choosing the speakers, location, agenda or educational materials for this study day.
- The pharmaceutical companies listed above have provided sponsorship for the venue and subsidence alone.

